Rome, Nov. 14. N. S.

THE Pope continuing very ill, ordered a Congregation of Cardinals to meet in his Bedchamber this afternoon, and declar'd to them that he had made a Promotion of 9 Cardinals, 5 of which he named, viz. Signior Santa Croce, his Nuncio at the Imperial Court; Signior Delphino, his Nuncio at the Court of France; Signior Archinto, his Nuncio at the Court of Spain; Signior Gabrieli; and Signior d'Aſti; The other 4 are reſerved in Petto, and are ſuppoſed to be the Governor of Rome, Signior Rodolwick Secretary to the Congregation of Biſhops, Signior Caraccioli Archbiſhop of Averſa, and Signior Guſani Secretary to the Congregation de Propaganda fide, and Nuncio at Venice. Cardinal Spada the Pope's Chief Miniſter, immediately ſent Expreſſes to the new Cardinals to inform them of their being preferred to that Dignity, and order their ſpeedy return to this Place; and Signior Gabrieli, who arrived this day, waited on the Pope, and received from him the Cardinals Cap. Our Letters from Nettuno ſay, they have had a very great Storm there, during which the Sea beat with ſo great Violence againſt the new Works at the Port of Anzo, that it has almoſt entirely ruined them.

Florence, Nov. 14. The Great Duke of Tuſcany has been indiſpoſed, but is now perfectly recovered, and prepares for his Journey to Rome, which he intends to begin about 3 weeks hence. He has ſent a Letter to the Pope to recommend to him the Biſhop of Voltera, in order to his obtaining the Archbiſhoprick of this Place, vacant by Cardinal Morigia's reſigning of it, who, it's ſaid, has ſo great an Intereſt with the Cardinals, that ſome think he may be elected Pope in the next Conclave. We hear, 5 Gallies of the Duke of Turſis's Squadron, one of which has on board the Duke d'Uzeda, Ambaſſador from Spain to the Court of Rome, are put into Villa-Franca, in their Voyage to Civita Vecchia.

Venice, Nov. 20. The Senate have received from Signior Mocenigo, General of their Forces in Dalmatia, an Account of the preſent condition of their Frontier Places in thoſe Parts, and are conſidering what Improvement may be made to their Fortifications which they intend to repair in the Spring. Count Corbelli, who was Poſtmaſter-General of the Imperial Poſt in this City, died ſome days ago, and the Senate have named Count Alexander Saviol, Signior Verzi, and Signior Vitelli, one of whom the Emperor is to make choice of to ſucceed Count Corbelli in that Employment. Signior Michieli, who was appointed to reſide at Conſtantinople as Baylo, or Ambaſſador in Ordinary from this Republick, died yeſterday. Cardinal Delphino's Relations receiving Advice of his Promotion, have thereupon made Publick Rejoicings, and entertained the Perſons of Quality here with Balls, Conſorts of Muſick, and other Diverſions.

Warſaw, Nov. 18. The Senate which was Aſſembled here to conſider of the Buſineſs of Elbing, are ſeparated, having reſolved that 300000 Dollars be paid to the Elector of Brandenburgh, to ſatisfie his Pretenſions from this Crown, and that the Crown-Treaſurer ſhall raiſe this Sum with all poſſible expedition, by mortgaging ſome of the Publick Revenues, if it ſhall be neceſſary. This Affair being thus ſettled, the Cardinal Primate returned to Radzieowsky, and moſt of the Senators are likewiſe gone back to their Country Houſes. Prince Alexander Sobiesky having perfectly recovered his health, will be going from hence in a day or two on his Journey to Rome. The Count of Zedenicky, Envoy from the Emperor, has left this Place, in order to go and paſs ſome time at Breſlaw.

Copenhagen, Nov. 25. The King of Denmark's Journey to Holſtein continues uncertain. The Duke of Wirtemberg, who is to have the Chief Command of the Daniſh Forces in thoſe Parts, left this Place on the 20th Inſtant, in order to go to Renſbourg. The young Count Wedel is gone from hence towards Vienna, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from this Crown to the Emperor. The Daniſh Squadron lately Commanded by Admiral Stocken, is laid up in our Port for this Seaſon, and the Seamen are diſcharged, but the greateſt part of them have obliged themſelves to return into the King's Service early in the Spring. The King has renewed his Orders to all the Colonels of Foot to encreaſe their Regiments, by adding 10 Men in each Company; and new Levies are making in ſeveral Parts of the Daniſh Dominions for this purpoſe.

Vienna, Nov. 21. The Emperor's Miniſters continue their Conferences with the Deputies of Hungary and Tranſilvania, concerning the ſettling the Subſidies demanded of the States of thoſe Countries, and the regulating the Subſiſtence and Quarters which they are to give to the Imperial Forces. The Emperor has appointed Count Wels to be his Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Sueden, in the Place of Count Francis of Staremberg, who died lately at Stockholm. The Dutcheſs-Dowager of Hanover arrived here the 16th Inſtant from Italy, to be preſent at the Lying in of the Queen of the Romans, who is now very near her Time. The Biſhop of Raab is returned hither from Cologne. Our Letters from Hungary give an Account, that Count Otting, the Emperor's Ambaſſador to the Port, arrived the 12th Inſtant at Buckowar, where he intended to continue till he ſhould receive Advice of the Grand Signior's Ambaſſador's Arrival at Belgrade; And that Count Guido of Staremberg, who is to receive the Turkiſh Ambaſſador on the Frontiers and to conduct him hither, was come to Eſſeck; The Imperial and Turkiſh Commiſſioners for ſettling the Limits were ſhortly expected from Croatia at Salankemen, in order to their being preſent at the Meeting theſe two Ambaſſadors are to have in the Neighbourhood of that Place. Theſe Letters add, that the Forces which were employed in building the new Fortifications of Arat, having left therein a Garriſon of 500
